“Our Daily Life and Struggles”
Psalm 127
Is Our Labor in Vain?
Are Our Efforts Fruitless?
Is Our Family an Asset?

The collage consists of three distinct images. On the left, a young child with light hair is seen from behind, sitting on the shoulders of an adult whose head and shoulders are visible. The child is wearing a light blue shirt and light-colored shorts. In the center, a silhouette of a person is shown in a dynamic pose, holding a bow and arrow, set against a bright, hazy sky. On the right, a perspective view of a stone archway leading to a bright, sunlit outdoor area with trees and a path.

Is Our Life at Peace?

The block contains two images. The left image shows a person standing on a dark, rocky hilltop, looking out over a vast landscape at sunset. The sky is a mix of dark blues and oranges. The right image shows a person standing in a field of tall, golden wheat or grain, looking towards a bright sunrise or sunset on the horizon. The lighting is warm and golden.
